Learning Site: _____ Facilitator: _____

Facilitators Contact information: _____

Class meeting at: _____ Hours: _____

Course Description:

Systematic theology offers a comprehensive, orderly overview of the major doctrines of the Christian faith as a framework for authentically Christian thinking and living. This course examines the doctrine of Soteriology (Salvation) in the areas of atonement, redemption accomplished and redemption applied. In addition, the student needs to consider the practical aspects of this area of theology.

Course Goals

The goal of this course is that the student will gain a solid grasp of the basic questions, issues, and formulations in the doctrine of Soteriology. He will learn how to approach questions in the doctrine of Soteriology from a biblical, historical, and systematic theological perspectives. In addition, it will allow the student to become familiar with the reformed views and to learn questions currently under discussion in the church today. The main emphasis is to think through the implications of doctrine of Soteriology for church life in general, pastoral ministry (in particular) and to assist the student in ascertaining and articulating the theology with which he/she does ministry.

Course Objectives: The successful student should:

- Use critical thinking skills to analyze theological claims.
- Know key theological terms and concepts.
- Experience the relationship between theology and Christian devotion.

Method of Instruction:

The primary means for this course are reading, writing, listening to lectures and group discussions lead by an approved LAMP facilitator. The student must be willing to engage in self-study, complete all the assignments and satisfactory sustain a final exam for the course in order to receive a final grade. To reap the most benefit from this method, the student should keep up to date with the assignment schedule.

Determination of Grade:

1. Assigned Reading 20%
2. Audio Lectures 20%
3. Class Attendance and Involvement: 20%
